Student Letter

Hello my name is in Inam. I live in Thailand. My family is simple but we are happy. My mother is a working woman, charming and always determined. My grandmother is gentle, kind and rational. In the evening, we usually eat dinner together & do a little activity together such as watching TV or singing.

The place I like most is beach because I feel relaxed there. I've been painting since I was seven. I can't draw well but my water coloring is good. I've been swimming since I was six and start competing at my old school when I was nine until 12. Now I swim for fun and health. I am a pretty funny and easy-going person.

I want to look at the world in the new perspective, to know and meet more people, such as my host family, and new friends. It would be a great honor to spread Thai culture, such as language, traditions, food, lifestyles, and dance. I also want to do activities with the Americans, such as sports, try the food, and learn English.

I am a normal girl. I also have dreams like everyone else and being an exchange student is one of my dreams. I want to be part of a medical development and participate in researching which includes healing others, such as developing vaccines or medicine. I am always cheerful and optimistic. I like to make others around me happy and I have high hopes that you are happy while reading my story.
