Student Letter

Hi, my name is Andrea and I'm from Spain. I enjoy learning new things and I could provide plenty of things about my country. Some of those could be the food, our habits...

When I'm there I hope to learn about their culture and the language because it's really important for my future. I also want to get to know myself better. I think that studying abroad will make me unwrap in a totally different area than I'm used to . I hope to meet new nice people to keep and create memories that I will never forget.

For having fun I like hanging out with my friends and going to the mall or maybe going for a walk. I also like spending time with my cousins and my brother in my grandma's house. Sometimes I ask my friend to stay over in my house as we spend the night together and have so much fun. I really like traveling with my family, discovering new places with them, I'm always ready for any plan or adventure! I actually think that anyone who knows me could tell others that I'm a generous, affectionate, empathic and energetic person. Lots of thanks for your time.
