Student Letter

My name is Sirapop. My nickname is Pleum. I'm 16 years old. My family is a small family. During our leisure time, we usually eat out and shopping at the department store. My family can talk about everything and we have no secret between each other. Every Sunday's evening, my whole family have dinner together.

I enjoy doing several hobbies including writing, watching series, cooking and playing games. I used to write a novel on a fiction website. I enjoy reading a wide variety of books; including fantasy, drama .I own more than 20 books and read them all during my free time. Watching movies always makes me relax. My dream is to travel around the world and to see amazing places which I have never been to. I dream to meet inspiring people ; such as Justin Bieber because he is such a great singer.

I really want to go to USA to meet new people and new experience and to find my inner inspiration. I will try my best in improving my English skills and learning ways of living by myself in foreign countries. I would also be proudly willing to demonstrate Thai cultures ; including Thai languages and food to my foreign friends. Finally, I'm looking forward to being one of the members in your family.
