Student Letter

Hello, My name is Timothé, I am 16 years old. I live in the south of France, not so far from the Spanish border.

I like to socialise with the people, always seeking for contacts with my school mates and other friends during vacations. I love going out with my friends, going to town, but also going out with my family and travelling to discover new countries. During summer, I often go to the beach with my friends our my cousins and skiing for winter.

I am quite athletic, I played rugby for 5 years when I was young and 2 years of basketball which I unfortunately had to stop due to knee surgery. Now I was able to resume sport and have been training for a few months more than 4 times a week. I love rugby and have been a fan of it since I was little. Also, I still follow the news of other sports such as soccer in France or basketball in the United States.

I've one brother which is 5 years older than me, he is studying management in a large university city. At home we have a dog (a german shepherd) and a cat. My parents and I are living in the family farmhouse because we just started to build a new house.

Now, you may ask yourself why should I want to go live in the United States? This experience will change my routine and thus, get me out of my comfort zone. I have always wanted to be more fluent in english and hope by going to America that I will also discover new things, traditions, and more than that, a totally different way of life.
