Student Letter

I'm Claudia, 16 years old, Italian and really happy, I cant see forward to join you all and know you, I'm really excited and optimistic!! Im doing the junior year in my school that is a languages school where I study French, Spanish and English literature, I also have a dog and his name is Cico. But I think that these are pleasantries and I want to talk about the real me!

I love breathtaking landscapes and hot places and sun, they make me feel peaceful and since I like to go outside it permits me to do relaxing walks or jogging; it can seems stupid but I like palms, my garden is full of palms and even my grandparent's garden , they just transmit peace and the thing I love the most: sunsets.

The reason why I chose to study languages is that I want to visit as much places as I can in my life, I was born with this passion I'm not a sedentary person I wanna see new places know cultures expand my knowledge. im dynamic, active and extroverted. I like art museums, monuments and I love big cities
