Student Letter

Hi, I'm Caterina, I'm a very selfless, cheerful and optimistic person. I always think positive even when everything goes wrong and I'm very selfless because I always think about making people feel better than me. I am a person who counts every little detail in every delicate situation and when it happens I lose control or correct every mistake and find a way out of almost any problem. I am outgoing and kind to everyone.

From this experience, I expect many positive things and many bonds to create that will remain with me forever. From me you will learn the personal value that I give to the family, my culture (and I too would like to know more about yours, your traditions...) and I'm sure I will make myself known for who I am and for how much it can be shy, I hope that after a while my usual me will come out and I hope with all my heart that a mutual and very beautiful relationship will be created. I would like to try as much as possible to learn and try new things and get involved in family and community activities.

I am a very cheerful and positive girl and I always try to make everyone smile even in the most difficult situations.
